Growing Through Counting the Omer

How to create 7 weeks of personal transformation

Monday, April 12, 8:30 pm

The first in a monthly series of Torah classes for young professionals

Shul Courtyard

*Social Distancing and Masks Required

President's Corner

Dear Members,

We are always on the look out for how to add teaching and programming for all our members. This month our newest program is geared towards young families and young professionals. We invite everyone, members and non members alike, to join monthly with Rabbi Reich in the Shul courtyard. Please check out the first meeting meeting on Monday, April 12th at 8:30 p.m. focusing on "Growing Through Counting the Omer: How to create seven weeks of personal transformation". Please tell your friends in and outside of the Adat community about this and invite them to join in and taste the flavor of Adat.

We are always open to new ideas for programming. Thank you to Rabbi Reich and Jacob Kamaras for initiating this young professionals learning group. Feel free to contact Rabbi Reich if you wish to initiate learning programs at any time.

I feel blessed to be given the role of president of this holy congregation at this season of our Freedom. On Pesach, Zman Charuteinu, we focus on the meaning of freedom; but the mitzvah to remember the Exodus, zechirat yetziat mitzraim, is one that must be fulfilled each and every day.

Like our duty to remember the Exodus daily, my duty to our shul is to focus every day on the wellbeing of our community, but once a year, usually coinciding with Pesach, the President and the Board are thinking ahead to the Spring Fundraiser, and what the shul needs to sustain itself for the year ahead. This year, we have a most unique event which is the centerpiece of our Spring Fundraiser. It is the MILESTONE event, which we hope will bring us all together for an inspiring Shabbat with teaching from HaRav Hershel Schachter, and a joyful Shabbat ruach with Moshe Storch leading services. The shabbaton is the leadup to the main event, the installation of Rabbi and Brooke Reich on Sunday May 2nd.

This upcoming week, the following members are observing yahrzeit; Laz Abramovitch, Michael Aron, Edward Federman, Martin Fogel, Jerry Hermel, Janet Klein, Harvey Neiman, Andrea Pelz, and Janith Seidel.

We wish them Long Life and may the Nishmot of those departed have an Aliyah.

Gut Shabbos and Chag Sameach!

Brian

MISSION STATEMENT

Eruv Checking Team Members Needed!!

Dear Members, we are in great need of people to help to check the Eruv. Some of our members have moved away over the past few years and now our current teams are pulling double duty.

The Eruv checking takes place typically every Wednesday and can be done (with a two member team) in around an hour.

If you are able to volunteer to help our community with this very important and crucial task please contact the office at info@adatyeshurun.org.

Thank you!!

Torah & Cholent Shas Survey

Each week we learn a different Mesechta (tractate) in Talmud Bavli (starting from Brachos through Niddah) and give an overview of the Mesechta, and discuss one major topic of the Mesechta, one practical halachic topic that comes from the Mesechta, and a famous Aggadah (ethical story). A Shas "Highlight-Reel", if you will, put together as a group!

Daf Yomi

Daf Yomi is a worldwide program in which students learn a page a day of the Talmud, our ancient repository of law, stories, mysticism, and more. It is an awesome way to get a smattering and exposure to the world of Talmud study and a great view of the landscape of Torah. One of the biggest yields of Daf Yomi is the YOMI, daily engagement in serious Torah study. Come and see that many of our students have no prior background in Talmud study, but show up with a great desire to learn.
